

NICOLA STEVENS

HEAD OF LEARNING OPERATIONS

Nicola is responsible for the fulfilment of DeakinPrime's client commitments, the maintenance of DeakinPrime's RTO and quality systems and risk management.

In 1995 Nicola began her Vocational Education and Training (VET) journey becoming a qualified VET Trainer and Assessor at the Halifax in the UK (a division of the Bank of Scotland). In 1998 she secured a role within the Wiltshire College Royal Armoured Corps Vocational Qualifications project where she successfully implemented Traineeships and completed Core Skills Training and Assessment for the Royal Hussars regiment based in Germany. Returning to the UK on the same project, she then supported the Household Cavalry in London in both operational and ceremonial Regiments.

In 2002 Nicola moved to Melbourne where she has held various training and development roles including; National Operations Manager of the Coles Myer Institute, RTO Manager of the Driver Education Centre of Australia, National Programs Manager at Salmat, and has also spent several years contracting.

Nicola brings to Deakin a breath of VET experience including spanning diverse organisations, industries and countries including the UK, Germany, New Zealand, Singapore and Australia.

Nicola holds a Certificate IV in Training and Assessment, Diploma of Management and has commenced a Masters of Business Administration (James Cook University).
